SUPPORT TIM HORTON'S CAMP DAY TODAY, JULY 17TH

Your support on July 17th, 2024 will help connect more underserved youth across North America to Tims Camps, empowering them to believe in their own potential and change their stories for the better.

This Camp Day, buy any sized hot or iced coffee from your neighbourhood Tim Hortons and help change youths' lives!

On July 17th , Tim Hortons Restaurants will be launching their annual Camp Day program where 100% of proceeds from Coffee (including Take 12s) and Iced Coffee sold will be donated to the Tim Hortons Foundation Camps (THFC).

You can also donate $3 for a Camp Day bracelet in support of the THFC.

Take 12's can also be purchased to buy a Camp Day coffee for your whole office, family or friends. What are Take 12s? Take 12s are a packaged bulk coffee set which includes 12 small coffees with all the normal additions (12 cups, sugar, dairy, etc.). They are perfect for any office staff room, meeting, worksite or for an easy coffee delivery surprise and delight for family and friends.

Take 12 pre-order forms can be submitted to local restaurants for orders to be picked up and paid for on Camp Day (July 17th)

GRAND OPENING OF THE NEW ACCESSIBLE PIER AT THE SASKATOON ZOO

I was thrilled to attend the grand opening of the new accessible pier at the Saskatoon Zoo. The pier is an essential component for all at the Zoo and plays a pivotal role in the educational and conservation programs and camps at the Zoo. The pier was made possible thanks to Greg & Olivia Yuel and a big shout out to @erindale.mcdonalds for providing treats. Thanks to the organizers and all that contributed and worked hard on this fantastic addition to our zoo.

SASKATCHEWAN'S REMOVAL OF THE CARBON TAX LEADS TO LOWEST INFLATION RATE IN THE NATION

Consumer Price Index increases remain low due to carbon tax removal

In June 2024, Saskatchewan's Consumer Price Index (CPI) increased by 1.4 per cent compared to June 2023. This is tied with Manitoba for the lowest increase among the provinces.

"Saskatchewan has the lowest inflation rate in Canada as a direct result of our Government's refusal to collect and remit the carbon tax," Minister of Trade and Export Development Jeremy Harrison said. "We will continue to provide necessary relief for Saskatchewan families, while fighting back against the Trudeau/NDP coalition government as they threaten to have the Canada Revenue Agency unconstitutionally garnish money from our province's taxpayers. Our government will always stand up for Saskatchewan people."

Saskatchewan's Removal of the Carbon Tax Leads to Lowest Inflation Rate in the Nation | News and Media | Government of Saskatchewan

OFFICIAL STATEMENT

We stopped them. The Government of Saskatchewan has been successful in preventing the federal government from its unconstitutional attempt to grab money out of Saskatchewan's bank account.

Only the Province can access Saskatchewan's Consolidated Revenue Fund. There can be no garnishment by the federal government.

The Province's bank account and general revenue fund are safe and sound, and all monies remain there, thanks to the Court's early intervention.

On June 26, Saskatchewan reached out to the CRA with alternatives to garnishing the Consolidated Revenue Fund of the Province. The CRA ignored those outreaches, and instead decided to garnishee the Province's fund, contrary to s. 126 of the Constitution.

We have now come to the very type of arrangement that could have been contemplated back in June. Saskatchewan has offered to establish a letter of credit, which is common practice for companies and other large entities and explicitly provided for under the federal carbon tax legislation. It will remain in place until our dispute is determined by the Tax Court of Canada.

Our arguments going forward remain the same: fair application of the law, minimum national standards, and no regional favouritism.

That means the Saskatchewan government will continue to provide the same carbon tax exemption on home heating that the Trudeau-NDP government is giving other parts of Canada.

And that exemption will remain in place until this federal government, or the next one, does the right thing and gets rid of the carbon tax on everyone and everything.

Hon. Bronwyn Eyre
Minister of Justice and Attorney General

INNOVATIONS IN FAMILY LAW

Building Stronger Communities

Innovations in Family Law

Saskatchewan is seeing great success from a number of innovative Family Law programs and services, run through the Ministry of Justice, that reduce the financial and emotional impacts on families experiencing separation and divorce. Since 2022, some 450 families have no longer required the services of a court.

Through the Family Law Services branch of the Ministry of Justice and Attorney General, the Government of Saskatchewan offers the following programs:

- The Child Support Service
- Mandatory Family Dispute Resolution
- The Parenting After Separation Program
- The Family Law Information Centre
- Intake Assessments

Each program has achieved successes by facilitating access to justice for families and mitigating the need for expensive court proceedings.

INNOVATION SASKATCHEWAN INVESTS $580,000 IN U OF R PROJECTS ADVANCING NUCLEAR SCIENCE AND SUBATOMIC PHYSICS THROUGH ISF PROGRAM

Innovation Saskatchewan is investing more than $580,000 in three research projects at the University of Regina (U of R) in nuclear energy, subatomic physics and high-performance computing in nuclear science through the Innovation and Science Fund (ISF). ISF matches federal innovation funding dollars for projects from Saskatchewan universities, colleges and research institutes to promote research excellence and competitiveness in the province.

“Saskatchewan continues to showcase its leadership in nuclear and subatomic research, helping advance global efforts and developing solutions in these key areas,” Minister Responsible for Innovation Saskatchewan Jeremy Harrison said. “This investment at the University of Regina will further support our province’s world-class research community, while providing advanced training, employment and economic opportunities for Saskatchewan people.”

STRONG FINANCIAL RETURNS AND RECORD CAPITAL INVESTMENT IN 2023-24 FOR THE CROWN SECTOR

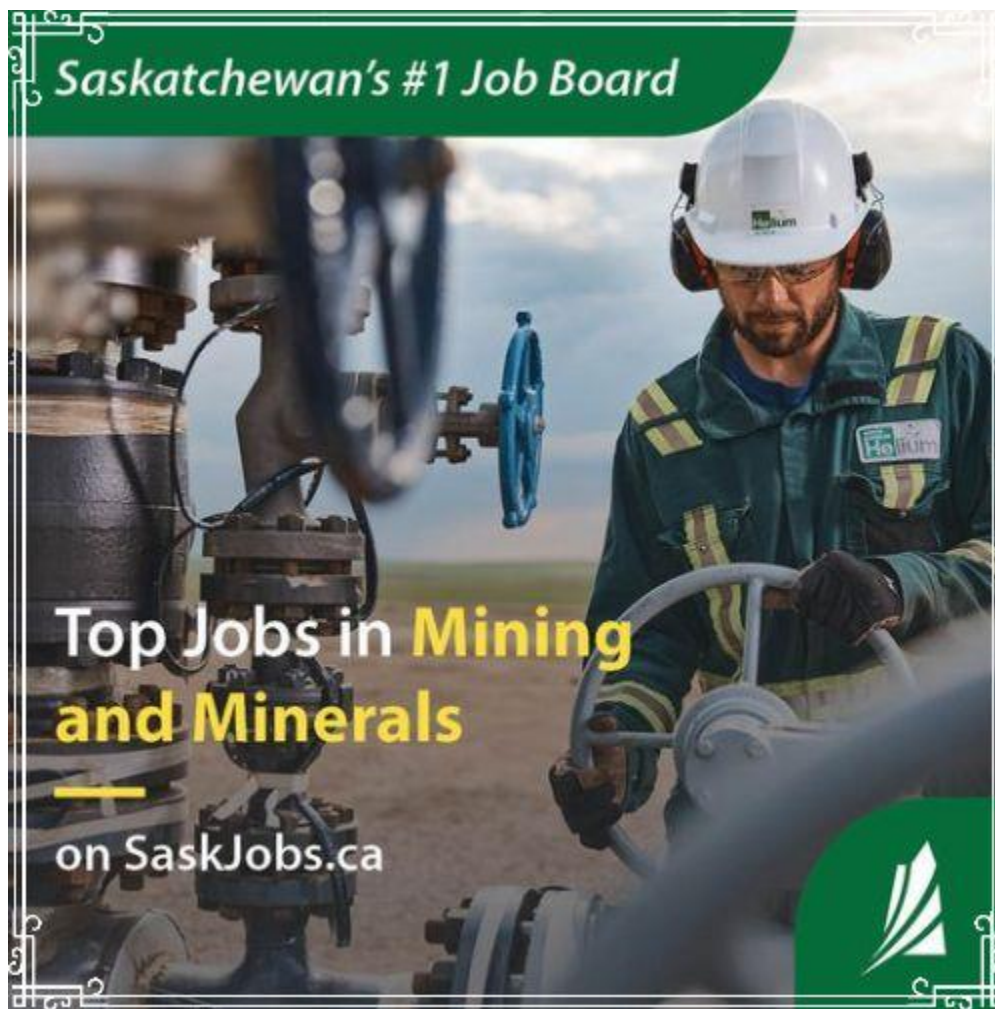

Crown Investments Corporation (CIC) released its 2023-24 annual report today outlining Saskatchewan's Crown sector's strong fiscal results. Together, the commercial Crowns made record levels of capital investment across the province and delivered some of the most affordable utility costs in Canada to families, communities, businesses and industry.

“Saskatchewan’s Crown corporations are key contributors to our province’s success, delivering quality services and finding innovative ways to enhance a high standard of living for Saskatchewan families,” said Minister of Crown Investments Corporation Dustin Duncan. “The sector’s accomplishments in 2023-24 helped Saskatchewan advance its Growth Plan goals to ensure our province continues to have a strong economy and bright future.”

KNOW YOUR LIMIT, STAY WITHIN IT: CONSERVATION OFFICER COMPLIANCE CHECK RESULT IN 15 FINES

Saskatchewan conservation officers had two busy weekends this spring, conducting fisheries compliance checks on anglers at the Regina Beach pier on Last Mountain Lake.

Between May 18-19 and May 25-26, officers conducted checks on 168 anglers. The compliance checks uncovered a variety of violations, including:

- over-limit on walleye;
- over-limit on upper sized walleye;
- using more than one line in open waters; and
- being more than 25 meters from a fishing line.

As a result of the inspections, officers issued 15 charges and seized 35 walleye.
